Uncle John, You were a true Hero and Mentor of mine for many years. Over the years as I watch many war movies or movies showing people of the arm services your strong image immediately came to mind as a Commander in the Military. Your leadership and respect in the LaBarrie family resonated well beyond the military and the business world. I will miss your wisdom, guidance and confidence in me as a person. Love always your favorite newpew Carlton!

To the LaBerrie family. My thoughts and prayers are with you doing this difficult time. God knows what's best for all of us and he know's when it's time for us to come "HOME" I know that you will miss him so much, but just know that one day you will all be together again. So to all of those who know him just keep his memories alive within your hearts. Sis I love you and I'm here for you and your family if you ever need anything. Remember Jesus is the great comforter and he will see all of you through this. Just continue to trust in him. The Walker (Michael & Rosalyn)
