Bruce Z posted:

Our daughter attended SMU and was unable to come home for some holidays because of distance. At those times, Lee, Ellen, and Trevor took her in with welcome arms. After Hurricane Sandy, our home state of NJ was devastated. Lee contacted our daughter and wanted to drive to NJ, 1800 miles, to help us clean up. We were overwhelmed by his generosity to embark on such a journey, to render comfort and assistance. Lee Dawson was a good man, and we will always remember his compassion in our time of need.
