Bobbie Hill

JAN 11, 1934 - FEB 1, 2014

Bobbie Hill, 80, passed away Saturday, February 1, 2014 at a Mansfield Hospital. Visitation and gathering of family and friends will be held on Thursday, February 6, 2014 at Mansfield Funeral Home.

Bobbie was born January 11, 1934 in Heavener, Oklahoma to Bertha and Stewart Azlin. She grew up in Redlands, California and graduated from Redlands High School. She moved to Henrietta, Texas in the early 60's. Bobbie loved to cross stitch, cooking for her family, collecting cook books and enjoyed the lost tradition of handwritten letters. She had a special place in her heart for children and worked keeping children in her home. She will be missed by her family and friends.

Bobbie was preceded in death by her daughter, Tammy Joyce Hill.

Survivors: husband of 60 years, John Hill of Mansfield; son, John S. Hill and wife Cindy of Mansfield; granddaughters, Ashley and Serina Hill of Lewisville, Texas; grandsons, Justin, Hunter and Nicholas Massie; great grandson, Zayden Carter of Lewisville.

Bobbie has always had little piece of heart. She was a very dear BFF to my momma (Gail). Bobbie was a fantastic cook, and historian. (she was a great help on a report for a high school class) I will always cherish the time we visited. John, I had to smile, thinking about our momma's reunion oKn the 1st of Feb. Love you and your daddy and will continue to lift you both in prayer
