just want you to know that your family is in our thoughts and prayers - i know the heart ache you feel, and i just wish i could take it away for you. it seems unfair that you are walking this path again - first Seth, now Cole. there are no answers to God's plans - all we have is the faith and hope that He promises us - i pray that you find comfort that God chose you to be the loving parents to your awesome sons, and that you did your earthly job and now they are back with their loving God. because life is eternal, we will see them again! i pray that God's grace will sustain you and wrap you with the love that only He can provide. love ya more, sipper and family
