Those we love don't go away, They walk beside us every day, Unseen, unheard, but always near, Still loved, still missed and very dear. I Love you Ashley. My heart and prayers go out to you and your family.

Mom, I could have never shown you or told you the extent of my love for you. Its an unspoken love. I want you to know that despite any obstacles that we ran against in our lives you were my inspiration for many of the things I have accomplisihed in my life. I couldn't thank you enough for the woman you have helped me to become. I am going to miss you so horribly bad, I will forever keep you in my heart. I love you and I will forever love you and everything that you were. From here on out I will live my life in honor of you. Forever yours, Amber

I am sitting here nearly two and a half years after my mothers death wishing like you wouldn't believe that she was here. I need her right now more than ever before. I need answers, and I haven't been at peace since your passing mom. I love you. Always
