Ah, Dennis. I have such great memories of you and your kids. I remember the Lil' smokies in your fridge that I couldn't stay away from. How you were always at your grill making burgers and steaks. Every weekend, while Natalie and I played, you would wash and wax your car. Countless tornado warnings which would find you on your deck looking for the tornadoes, but sending us to the basement. Staying the night, and your great cooking. Your quiet laugh. Your love of your dogs. Your love of your kids. I am sorry so much time has gone by without seeing you. I will miss you.

Denny, I lost track of you in 1965, we both went different directions. You were a great classmate and I am so glad that I was able to communicate with you a couple of weeks ago. Rest in Peace my friend, I have thought of you often over the years. Ron
