Crystal my dear friend I still can not believe all of this I so want to wake up and be told its just an awful nightmare, I want to get that text and or call from you that says "Hey girl you smiling today, God is GOOD" I owe you so much God brings people into our lives for a reason and I truly feel blessed he sent you. I will always think about our conversations our laughs and your words of encouragement and words of wisdom I will always carry them with me deep in my heart along with the blessing of you. I will never forget you ever and I will always miss you until we meet again! I love you my dear friend today, tomorrow and forever. To all of Crystals family and to her friends please except my deepest condolences I pray so hard that each of you will keep your faith and dig deep for strength during this difficult time. Love you all!!! Lisa Young

Crystal, you left the world a better place than you found it. You raised your children, "and husband" to leave the world a better than they found it. I will miss our talks about football and how proud we were of your son's athletic achievements. I will miss your friendly waves and bright beautiful smile. Until we meet again.
