Bobby L. Moore

FEB 25, 1933 - NOV 3, 2017

To feel the mild, delicious clime,
Where summer never fades;
To breathe the glorious atmosphere,
Which sickness ne'er invades;

To reach at last that happy land,
Where tears are never known;
To see the wondrous face of Him
Who sits upon the throne;

All the great souls of all the years,
In Heaven's high courts to meet;
All kindred spirits, glorified,
To join, in converse sweet;

To burst the chrysalis, and soar
On love's triumphant wing;
To swell the hymns of mighty praise,
The ransomed armies sing;

To wear the robes of saints in light;
To shine as shines the sun;
To hear the Saviour's welcome voice
Pronounce the glad "well done!"

And, O, the crowning height of bliss,
Where all the glories blend,
To know the bliss, the light, the love,
Shall never, never, end!

Bobby L. Moore

FEB 25, 1933 - NOV 3, 2017

Beyond the shades of sin and woe,
With joyful speed to fly,
And in God's loving arms to rest,—
Oh, it is gain to die

Mr. Moore was the 3rd Band Director of the first band of the former G.W.Griffin High school. He was instrumental in obtaining scholarships for many to attend various Universities. The Parades and Band Day experiences, along with us traveling to AR, TN, MS, and towns/cities in LA provided everlasting memories for all. RIH Mr. Moore!!

I have lots of fund memories of following Mr Moore and the band on weekends. We felt pretty special being able to walk right into the club and not have to pay. I got a chance to talk with him a couple years ago and he knew who i was as soon as we started talking. We had a great conversation. He explained to me how his house had two addresses lol

I can remember my first time being a majorette. We were performing at an away game. I twirled my baton and I flew right to the football players bench. I walked over to the bench while the band was still playing, picked up my baton, walked back to my spot and continued to twirl, like nothing happened. When we got back to the bandstand, Mr. Moore said, " Toni Patrick the next time that baton flies out of your hand you better pretend like its still there. Don't pick it up till the show is complete." So glad that we were not competing at a Battle of the bands competition.

AS Anthony Sneed November 7 at 12:52 PM
he Challenged me @ every turn! He was a true perfectionist! He knew how to get the best out of you! He even knew when to let you be: EAXMPLE: when I 1st played the Congo's and bongos I didn't realize the solo @ the end WELL I screwed it up pretty good that day and it felt like the WHOLE town was laughing 😊 😊 @ me I didn't care I only cared about what he felt! I knew for sure that he would take me off them! HE Did not say a word he didn't even look at me! Well I went home that night and practiced all night! The next day! I played like a Pro! Everyone that laughed the day before! There was complete SILENCE! I didn't care about how GREAT I played I was concerned about how he felt! He gave the same REACTION he gave the day before! NOTHING! not good job! The only thing he said was let's go in! I'm like you have to be kidding me!!! Here's the DEAL he gave me my band jacket during the summer Ricky Williams and Terry Stokes got there's before me he ordered them during the winter! He knew us as individuals one by one! Thank you Mr. Bobby L Moore for bringing out the best in a lil big head boy from lake providence la!!
