Brianna, I'm praying for you and the rest of the family. Your heart is heavy right now, but knowing that your mom has gained her wings. It will get easier, but please understand that it's a process. Allow yourself the time to get through. I love you and will continue to pray. Just take it day by day.

Erna did not meet very many strangers. She was a smiling face, an inspiration, and a friend to just about everyone she met. She was a true Diva! Her life is a legacy of Love, Hope, Faith, Joy, Peace, and Strength. She will be missed immensely by all that had a chance to know her. God's comfort will keep those of us left behind. Rest in Heaven my Lovely Sister Erna.

I met Erna through our "greeters group" at The Church on Rush Creek. She was always there to greet, no matter how bad she felt, with a smile on her face, high heels and a dress. We prayed with her, and for her each week, shedding tears on many occasions. Now she is dancing in the streets of Heaven with her Lord and Savior, watching over her grandbabies. I will never forget her grace, beauty and love for God. She will be missed dearly. Shannon Yost

I met Erna a long time ago, 38 years to be exact. A co worker who became a special friend to me. Erna Mae girlfriend is who she became to me and I Patricia Mae girlfriend to her. We had a special bond and I cherished her friendship, all our talks, sharing the good and the bad in our lives our hope and dreams for our children and grand children. She was a person to sacrifice everything she had to give or do for others. She loved the Lord with all her heart. I someday will be reunited with my dear Erna Mae girlfriend in heaven.

Lovely Erna you will be greatly missed. Your strength, courage, love for Jesus not only brought you peace but inspired ALL you came into contact with. She was the best friend you could have to the other patients here at the Arlington Cancer Center. Her faith carried her into the arms of Jesus. If she wasn't wearing her "Not today Satan" shirt she was living it. I am thankful she doesn't have the cares of this world pulling at her anymore. Thankful there's no more chemo, pain, surgeries, etc..I am sure she was reunited with Dawn, Renee, and others. Erna may you RIP. I will see you again someday. Praying for comfort for her family.

I met your mom when she came into Kincaids for lunch. I noticed the port for chemo and asked what kind of cancer she has. When she told me pancreatic cancer, I told her about my sister Melissa who had just recently passed away from that same cancer after a strong fight for 2 years. Your mom is a beautiful, strong warrior and is now an angel in heaven. I'm sure my sister welcomed her with open arms and much love and pride in her heart as you mom received her wings. She is now pain free and that brings much joy to my heart. God bless you and your family.

I met Erna through Linda Lee. Immediately I knew she was an angel. In 2006 I had surgery she came to my home everyday until I could walk again. She was a blessing, and will be missed dearly

What a blessing and inspiration Erna has been to me also! Everytime she would come into our office, she would smile her beautiful smile, and even though she was having a hard time or struggling she would be positive. I loved how she would share scripture on facebook and be such an encouragement to me! Erna will be truly missed but I look forward to seeing her again in Heaven! Pat Ritz

Erna was an inspiration to all who knew her. She always had a smile on her face no matter how she was feeling. Erna was a fighter. She fought her cancer for 5 years and rarely missed greeting on a Sunday in church. She was beautiful inside and out. I love her and will miss her dearly. She touched my life and I am a better person for it. I know she is with our Lord with no more pain and suffering. Thank you God for the blessing of Erna and give strength and peace to her family. 🙏

Erna was my inspiration!! There was no one quite like her. She was a blessing to me. I so valued her friendship. I hope I can be as strong and courageous in any battle I ever face. They say God puts people in our lives for a reason, she was one of those. My life is richer because of this lovely lady. She is with Jesus and she is at peace. I loved her and thank God for her. 😊

I loved Erna almost from the moment we met in BSF. Her smile lit up the room and her certain faith and trust in God is inspiring even now. She was so brave and strong. I admire her greatly I am sad for us that she has left us, but for her, I am so happy that is well, pain free, and with Jesus.
