Miss Angelia Michele Duke

MAY 8, 1972 - APR 21, 2018

Lord, please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my Mother's arms and tell her they're from me.

Tell her that I love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.

Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
but there's an ache within my heart
that will never go away.

Angie! I want to say I love and will miss you. Thank you for being my rock when Anthony passed. He knew we would have been great friends, that's reason he kept us apart. We held each other together over the years. Rest in peace my friend. Love you lots, Marcy

Angie I'm so glad we had those last few days together and our talks. I know you are at peace now and with Jennifer (your Goose). You are the strongest person I know. You kept saying up until the end "I've got this", you sure do. Thank you for "our secret". Love you Judy Hubbell

This is heartbreaking for all, I loved her as a child/niece at one time by marriage. Will treasure the long talks we've had on pm (FB) . I prayed for a miracle, was not meant to be, gone way too soon, but will not be forgotten. My heart, thoughts and prayers with all the family, your dad, Jerri Ann, your precious sons and grand daughter. I will miss you sweetie.

It all started with an invite to a scrap booking party. I remember thinking how cheesy of a party it was gonna be....I had so much fun doing something normal with wonderful women, not at all like I was used to. I had no clue God place me there with purpose. On that day I met my best friend, my sisyer in life, my angel on Earth. You put light in my life as well as so many others. Every memory I have that you touched was a great one. I love you more than words can say and miss you already. Hold some spots up there so we can party like old days when I get there. It's so hard to say goodbye.
