Brother & classmate James you will be truly missed. I guess God needed another point guard on His team, I remember the days we played basketball all day long in the park. I'll always remember how you used to judge how much I had grown by measuring my wrist using your hand and placing it around my wrist. Brother, our days at T SU are definitely unforgettable as are you. (IMO) Gone Too Soon!!Prayers are going up for your family.Sincerely,Jesse Henry

I meet Mr. James Miller in 1975 at Texas Southern University while taking a Calculus class. He was a very hard working student. Mr. James Miller would talk about East Texas all the time. James & I met through my best friend Nancy. The 3 musketeers (roommates) James, Lawrence & Perkins. James use to always say crazy but funny things. Nancy & I would go to Houston on weekends while at PV. Lawrence & James always made sure we had a good time. He embraced me as if I was his sister. Even though we haven't communicated since our PV days he was my brother. Keep them laughing up there brother. Always laughing, that's who he was. He will truly be missed by everyone who knew him. Thanks for being a big brother to me. I will never forget the weekends we spent in Houston. James being the funny one & Lawrence being the serious one. (Good times) 😊 Now, you are our guardian angel watching over us. When I got the news my heart dropped. But, I know you are in a better place now. To his family, thanks for sharing him with me. I will always have love for him. Thanks, Nancy for being my friend and sharing your brother with me. He was a good big brother. Love you, my brother ❤️ Your adopted sister, Tetch.....
