My Name is Robert D. Morris. Coach Small... Wow. Hard to believe this man who has helped SO MANY is gone. He touched me personally, and helped my family during a time when I was laid off. He asked me to Coach the SA Eagles Basketball Team, which I did. We wound up winning the Championship, and his son NIKKO (Happy Feet) was on that team. If I needed ANYTHING he was more than willing to give, so I never took unfair advantage of his generosity. His smile, his leadership, and his tenacity are what I will remember, but his HEART is what I will remember most. Rest Easy Coach, you are dearly missed already. as you would say with a big smile "Ok, Ok"... The Morris Family.

My condolences to the family. I've been knowing Roman for a long time he was a great man. So down to earth and a great person to talk to. My twin girls Nadia and Nia Lamar he adored. They just told me last Saturday they saw him and hugged him and he loved that they cheered for Arlington eagles back then. They are judges for cheer now (25 years old) How they won 1st place in the competition. I also would see him at the Cowboy stadium. I'm going to truly miss him.
