Curtis was ornery, he use to pull my hair and stick his tongue out at me when I was little then when I would do it to me I got in trouble as he laughed. But I sure loved him I remember mom reading his letters that he sent while he was in the service, tough as ornery as he was I missed him. He was a good man and he will be missed! Love you Curtis!

Curtis was My Buddy , we went on field trips and did some summer activities with Austin , Bri & Kayla (our grand children) (bowling , lunches, go-carts six flags are just a few of the things we did with the kiddos . He always had me laughing -there truly wasn't a dull moment when he was around. when Brant My Grandson was born he called him his "lil Buddy " and always brought him snacks to the school while we waited in line to pick Austin , Bri & Kayla up from school .. There was 3 of us that hung together Curtis, Ruth, & myself . I'm not saying good-bye I will say so long until we meet again — RIP My Buddy!

Curtis was a funny man. I remember him giving Ann a hard time at every party about those "birthday slices" of cake. He was well liked and it was obvious he cared for his family. Keeping you all close in my thoughts. ❤️ Shanna Miller

Curtis Loved kids and would often take Abbey and Mikayla on day trips to various places. I also remember him making up songs such as Messy Jessy. I am glad he is no longer in pain. Prayers for all.
