To the family of Dee Clark please accept our deepest condolences for your loss. Dee was one of a kind true friend and loving father, son and brother. I remember Dee when he was just a boy. Dee and my son Robert (Cold Bear) were the best of friends and have known each other almost their whole life. Dee had a big heart and always had a warm smile. Stay strong and keep his memory alive. God bless you all and may Dee rest easy. Love, Birtha Jeter

I'm posting this on behalf of my mother Carla Calhoun and my family... mr.dee was such a positive light in our lives like many people who have shared a memory he is the epitome of a true loving caring friend and individual. I loved how he was unapologetically himself at all times... he recently on the 15th of January took my sister to the gun range because she had purchased her first weapon and he wanted to make sure she knew what she was doing... my daughter who is only four years old loved her some mr. dee they would FaceTime and argue and fuss all the time but they both loved it... mr. dee I've cried and dreamed of you since finding this tragic news out we will miss you so much... thank you for being a true friend to my mother and somewhat of a father figure to us... I'll never forget our talks laughs and moments. I'm starting my realty classes soon and although I hoped to go into business with you just know I still plan on making you proud sir... we love you to the moon and back

It's so hard to say goodbye Dee Clark ! It's with a heavy heart that I bid you farewell. It's the beginning of the year and we had so much work to do. I've gotten so many calls, texts and messages from people just wanting to confirm if it's true. Did you pass away? They are all heart broken....as am I. You left such a lasting impression on everyone you met. You're certainly one of the best guys I know. You only have one biological brother but so many people saw you as their brother. We will miss your laughter and infectious smile. Real Estate just won't be the same without you. Everybody wants a well seasoned Realtor like yourself on their team but GOD beat them to it. We will miss you deeply but I now know you have a new home. Go ahead and put your sign out....Agent on Duty! Hold an open house and let them know you are there. RIP my friend until we meet again.

Well, it's been almost a week without my friend. I was thinking this morning, with all those family and friends fixing to show up for him that he probably has some good BBQ brisket cooking in heaven. Dee was so proud and picky about his BBQ! Someone better be making his famous banana pudding.. never mind they can't make it as good as Dee, and he would tell you that! He also wants a buttermilk pie. Dee had such a huge generous heart for people, I guess he gave so much of it his big ol heart just gave out. He loved to talk about how smart his kids were and how he kept them in line. He was proud of his brothers success with the "chicken lady" talking her into letting his brother open up a Henderson's franchise. His uncle in New York, his beautiful classmates he went on strict diets for, so he could "look good" on their upcoming reunion vacations. He loved everyone, especially his Mom. He and Berkita did an excellent job of co parenting, he respected her and in 20 years, I never heard him say a bad word about anybody. Well, maybe a few Monday morning football plays, or draft picks, but that doesn't count! Dee was so smart about everything.. real estate, cars, life. He was soo funny and had so many plans for his future. He wasn't done. I'm sad for him that he will miss Kami 's future wedding day and Dee 11 future successes. He earned that. I don't believe God knows when your time is done. But in the end it doesn't really matter how Dee died, it matters how he LIVED. He is well kept in the arms of God and we are all better people for knowing him and laughing with him and loving him. Miss you "big head" Debster Aka Debi Cross

Dee! I've been avoiding writing or sending flowers because it makes me realize that this is really true and not just a dream. This is so unreal. You've always been so full of warmth, love, kindness, hustle, laughter, energy...so full of LIFE!!!! You brought so much to the lives of others!! It's almost unbearable that you aren't physically here with us. After being in real estate over 15 years, 1 conversation with you gave me the confidence and courage to buy a Franchise. One conversation with you made me feel that your office had the best people in the world there. It was an office that was bonded like no other, that knew each other intimately, that celebrated and enjoyed life more than they worked; AND you, my and friend, was a major reason and part of that family culture. That vibe was different for me, because it was a work space but was more like an episode of CHEERS. But that office helped me to learn that life is more important than real estate work and success isn't about awards. It's about living. As, I write this now, I'm crying selfishly because your friends want and need you here; but I'm happy for you that God feels that even at a young age, you've done and completed your job on earth so well and so quickly that He called you up to be amongst the greatest!! You've always been a spiritual angel in human form and you are obviously too good for this space. There isn't anyone who knows you that won't miss you! Your REAL job was living in such a way that you touched and impacted the lives of everyone. And everyone knew you were a representative of God. Job well done Dee! The REAL job done well and completed too fast. Please visit Tewanza, Issac, your mom, wife and children in their sleep. Let them know you are ok, fill them with great memories and comfort. Please show up in the clouds and comfort your extensive list of friends and clients. We all miss you like you wouldn't imagine. Until we meet again Dee...

I worked with Dee for almost 5 years at VRM and he was one of my favorite people! He always had a big smile on his face, came bopping through the office like he was listening to his favorite song, and it made my day better when I saw him walking up to my desk. He loved talking about his family and it was always so obvious that they were his greatest source of happiness and pride. I'm just heartbroken to hear of his passing and send all my prayers and love to his family.

What is there to say.. Dee was a powerful rudder in our office "boat" dee was always dressed sharp, car washed, showed up at 9 every morning, and remember he was self employed.. always with a positive stride and a big smile. I will miss him calling me "Debster" Good morning Debster!! Dee knew SO much about real estate and I chose him to be my mentor when I finally got my license. He always answered his phone and gave sage advice. He was so good with kids when they came into the office , a natural fatherly reporte. Can't say enough how many many people, including me, loved this fine funny smart man. Love ya, Dee. The Debster.. aka Debi Cross
