Desmond Antywon Carter

OCT 3, 1979 - MAR 6, 2022

"Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away."

1 Corinthians 13:4-8

Desmond Antywon Carter was born on October 3rd, 1979, to Miguel Antywon Allen and Ruby Helen McIntosh in Fort Worth, Texas. Desmond grew up in Fort Worth, Texas, attended Arlington Independent School District, and graduated from Bowie High School in 1998.

Desmond accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior as a young adult. After graduating high school, Desmond attended the University of Houston where he met his future wife, Shasta Borden, and to her surprise one day he had enlisted in the United States Air Force. He returned to Fort Worth after his service was completed and soon married the love of his life, Shasta. From this union, two boys were born, Desmond II and Davion.

Desmond was a loving father and husband that led by example. He loved nothing more, on this earth, than his wife and two boys (though the Cowboys were a close second!)

He loved God, was a man of Faith, and he never met a stranger. Desmond loved life and people and could always be found helping someone in need. He was a jack of all trades: an IT guy, a farmer, played sports, coached peewee football and so much more. Above all those other things, he was a diehard Dallas Cowboys fan...like diehard...for real!

Desmond was an ambitious entrepreneur and had just accomplished his lifelong

I've always admired the love and affection between Shasta and Des. They made a great team, great parents, and their love and dedication to their family is truly something to admire. I remember walking in their house one day, and they were in a room laying on the floor fixing something. But they were all up on each other like teenagers, and it wasn't even a romantic setting. To myself, I was like.. "Aww, they are still in love for real. That's what's up!!" That's a fond memory. ❤️
