About Mama Born March 8th 2020, She started following the Baptist Missionaries who came to Ogbomosho for mission work at the age of twelve. Mama got to know the Lord at an early age even before marriage. She was taught how to read and write in Yoruba language so that she can read and understand the Bible. She was afraid of getting drowned in water and as such refused initial baptismal offer but got baptized by sprinkling of water in Methodist Church because her husband was a Methodist Church member. She later got baptized by immersion at Christ Apostolic Church in Ibadan while living with her daughter Mrs Grace Omolade. She had a second immersion baptism at Apostolic Faith Church Oke-Ado, Ibadan while living with another daughter Mary Oladele. She chose to remain a Baptist member till death because she has been a Baptist from the beginning. She exemplified Biblical doctrines as seen in the book of Philippians 4:8 that says "Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things." Mama was beautiful inside out, She is peace loving, caring and giving and her cleanliness is next to Godliness. She particularly believed in tithing and claimed that; Tithing prolongs life, wades of sicknesses and diseases, prevents loss and brings favor from God and man to the extent that Mama will tithe from any monetary gifts to her children. Mama encouraged her husband to pay tithes instead of Class money being paid by Methodist Church members. Mama is a faithful tither who loved God to the end. Penned by; Grace Kikelomo Omolade (First Daughter)

Tribute to the best grandma My grandma Alice Adeola Adegboyega. Humm, its so hard to say goodnight to you. Its the first time in 14 years that i didn't meet you sitting and waiting for me to walk in through the door. "Aduke agbo" as you fondly call me and say all the oriki that i should have recorded. Haaaaa, now its too late because i was not prepared for this, how i long to hear you call my name. My greatest joy is that you saw Jesus before you died and so i am assured of where you are. I love you and i can go on and on. You impacted me in every area of my life, you are always giving and giving. May your gentle soul rest in perfect peace. Funmi Bunmi - Ige (Granddaughter)

TRIBUTE IN FOND MEMORIES OF MATRIARCH OF OLA'LEESADE FAMILY. "When beggars die, there are no comets seen, the Heavens blaze forth the death of Princes" (Shakespeare's Julius Caesar) Mama impacted positively all who had the opportunity of interacting with her, she was always willing to share everything and most especially prayers - a divine gift she shared willingly to all who came across her. Mama held tenaciously to the Truth in the Word of God. Her loving kindness, care and affection towards everyone, engendered peace and strong bond particularly amongst her children, and others In the extended family. There was no limit to her wise counsel, always expressing same at every given opportunity, no wonder God was kind to you even at age

*TRIBUTE TO A GREAT WOMAN - MAAMI*Your sudden demise came as a rude shock to me most especially that I looked forward to seeing you in my next trip. You were bubbling with life the last time we saw. You were a pillar of support to my siblings and I. You comforted and shielded us on every side, warding off any form of challenge we could have faced ever since we lost our parents.Though you are old, your love and care made you look younger than your age. You will be truly missed.We pray God to grant you eternal rest and grant the family and friends the courage to bear the irreplaceable and irreparable loss.Adieu Maami, Abiamo Tooto.*Faramade Ige*
