Due to power outage, I'm just receiving this email. Although I didn't know Charles, I know Odie. If he was anything like his sis, he was a phenomenal man. Odie loves and cares for her family and extended family (PV classmates) as well. Please when sad, try focusing on the good times together even humorous things it may help when thoughts come of an "empty chair" at the table. To the Woods and McGowan families you are in our prayers. In His Grace, Beverly Norsworthy

I did not know Charles, but I do know Odie, one of my closest and dearest friends and how much she loved and cared about him. In fact, her entire family is extremely close so a loss such as this might seem to leave a physical space unfilled, but the love and memories will always be there to fill that space and complete the family. I send my condolences to Odie and her family and offer my support, love and prayers. Donetta
