Here's a few memories, it's hard to choose from a whole gallery of options. You didn't disappoint as a Son-In-Law and I couldn't be more proud of the Father you are to my Granddaughters. The day you and I went and picked up this table even though we were working so hard to get it all to fit we stayed laughing, I'm going to miss our Friday morning talks coming home and you were the only one in the house awake so those were our mornings. I love you and you truly will be missed. Watch over my baby and y'all's babies ☐☐

Daniel was really an amazing father and friend. We both shared a couple of things in common, one being we both loved to draw. He would always come and show me his drawings and his progress, which of course he always downgraded his talent. But in reality, he learned quick and was an amazing drawer. I was always impressed with each drawing. I'm so very sorry for his family, Desiree and his daughters. He was a great person to know and was taken away too soon, but God needed him way more than we did. He will truly be missed.

From the moment I met you i held you to a high standard. You were self motivated and had your head on straight. A amazing father is a understatement. You. We're full of life and you earned my respect at such a young age, I admired your hustle to keep pushing forward and continuing to grow and expand. You'll truly be missed kiddo

we have a thousand memories, my favorite will always be june 2018, i received a call while out to eat to come over and celebrate your birthday i had the biggest smile on my face for the rest of the day. i finally got to see you after years of missing you and wondering how life was treating you. the day that a brother and sister were finally reunited. we been inseparable since then and finally our most recent november 23rd, your nephew's 1st birthday party, we got to catch up and talk about everything and you got to see your nephew for the first time. another one my family surprising me with a graduation party and you being the first person i spotted out of the room. i am so grateful for all the phone calls, car rides, birthdays, memories, just everything. i could go on and on but all in all your little sister loves you dearly for life and after ❤️.

My favorite memory with Daniel is when I came home from bootcamp in Chicago. He asked me, "What did you miss the most while you were gone?" I told him Buc-ees, and he immediately came to pick me up and drove all the way to the Buc-ee's in Denton. On the way there his car broke down 😊. He felt so bad, but honestly, it ended up being one of the best days I had with him. His brother came to pick us up and Daniel was so upset about the car not starting. I teased him about it every time I saw him after that. Later that night, we went to IHOP and the power went out. We laughed so hard because it felt like a day full of bad luck. From that moment on, I started calling him "Danny Phantom." Another thing I loved was visiting him at RaceTrac when he was working. We would talk for hours about everything until I got tired and had to go home. Daniel was my friend since 4th grade, and he was an amazing friend. I'm going to miss everything about him. I love you, Dan, and I hope you're getting your rest ☐.
