To Pat and The Family of Tiffanie Nicole Jordan, "The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit." Therefore, He is especially close to you, and watching over each of you as you navigate through this loss. Myself, and all those that knew Tiff, share in your grief. She was a beautiful spirit, and blessing to her family and friends. She left you all with the gift of so many awesomely beautiful memories that were made, and gathered throughout the last 42 years that are yours to cherish and keep. You all are in my thoughts and prayers. Particularly the twins, but I pray for you all's peace, comfort, and strength as you mourn her homegoing. With deepest sympathy, S. Simpson

I met Tiffanie through teaching her girls in Kidzlife for years. She was always such a bright light. Her love, sweet spirit, infectious smile, and everlasting faith was always shining. Her love for Jordan and Reese shined brightly too. She remains a pillar of strength, hope, joy, and faith, as her light will continue to shine in our hearts and be an encouragement of the life and light that we all should be. We are praying for you, Jordan and Reese, and family. Christine Watkins Bennett

I'll miss Tiffanie and will always treasure the memories we shared...from vacation bible school as kids, to playing basketball and track in jr/high school, sharing cherry sours in class, and meeting up for lunch at Parkland Hospital as healthcare professionals. Tiffanie had the biggest smile and an even bigger heart. Her faith, kindness, and joyful spirit were a reflection of God's love. I pray that God surrounds her family, friends, and precious girls with comfort, strength, and peace that surpasses all understanding.

Well, I am certainly too late this time. From reading the memories and seeing the moments captured, it's very plain to see that I have really missed out. But I'm thankful for your time here, Tiffanie, seeing how you lit up others' lives and were such a support and a blessing, especially to those who were and are a blessing to me and instrumental in my life. So you did, indeed touch my life as well, and I am feeling the loss. And I'm looking forward to meeting you too as soon as my work is done here. I don't know how it works, but going to put in a prayer now that the Lord will go ahead and set that up. Praying for the family. My condolences.

WEDNESDAY, 09 JULY 2025 12:30PM CSTRE: CONDOLENCES TO THE FAMILY OF TIFFANIE NICOLE JORDANDear Family of Tiffanie,There is absolutely no way to compute the spiritual, emotional, and physical pain that you're feeling right now because of the loss of Tiffanie Nicole Jordan! I met Tiffanie through her work with Dr. Gloria, who is the mother of my friend and colleague Tracee Holloway.Tiffanie was sweet and efficient. She handled all of Dr. Gloria's administrative work, helped her technologically to upload teach-the-teacher curriculums, acted as a liaison with Dr. Gloria's affiliates across 5 to 10 different states, and was her business confidante.I only met Tiffanie briefly, but I saw the results of Tiffanie's work and her profound effect on Dr. Gloria's heart. She was a treasured member of Dr. Glo's family as her niece, but was the heartbeat of her business over these past few years. In our private conversations, Dr. Gloria lovingly referred to Tiffanie as one of her "3 T's."Please accept my deepest of condolences to your entire family and extended community.Tiffanie Nicole Jordan's passing is a GREAT loss to us all. Sweet people have become a rarity in society today. Tiffanie was a true gem.On behalf of The Temple University Chapter of The Compassionate Friends, a grief support organization in Philadelphia, McDaniel Consulting GBSFE in Dallas, and myself Syreeta McDaniel, please know that FREE peer-to-peer grief support is available for your entire family. Tiffanie was the leader of our jump squad at UNT. She was also a school record holder and the triple jump queen of the Sun Belt Conference in 2003. Here she is defending her title at the conference championships on Sunday, May 9, 2004.I'm going to miss you so much, Tiff! ❤️ You were truly special. So kind and sweet and always encouraging others. No matter what crazy new adventure I was embarking on, you were always there to cheer me on. I will always admire your toughness. There was so much mental and physical strength packed into your tiny frame! I'll keep holding on to all the good memories, like you always calling me "old woman" even though you were 9 days older than me! 😊 For years, we talked about going on vacation together for our birthdays, but we never did. I desperately wish we had. 😭 I love you so much, Tiff. I'll continue to pray for your daughters and the rest of your sweet family. Rest well. I'll see you on the other side.

It took a whole week for me to get all the way through it (and not cry), but I was finally able to listen to your full audio recording on Tuesday! (And, still cried anyhow, but I needed to.) Girl... I just love you so much cousin. My sister-cousin... my friend... my confidante... our Tiff. You're an example of so many good and wonderful things, beautiful inside and out. Thank you for being true to yourself through every curveball and letting us all in on your secret to making life meaningful: 🙏 UNSHAKABLE FAITH. You're one of God's strongest to ever do this thing called Life... If I looked up "Cousin Tiffanie" in Webster's spiritual dictionary (not a thing but let's pretend, shall we), it'd say: The feminine personification of the phrase "I'm blessed to be a blessing." Thank you for trusting me with your favorite part (the program). It is well, it's pretty, it's unique, it's simple, it's your wishes... and, it's very much "You"... Your smile would beam, so mine does it for you... over time, some of this sadness will fade, I know. And, I know you're in a better place with God and loved ones—Now, I'm gonna take my time getting there, but I'll join you in God's bosom when I do! And we'll swap "heavenly" stories... until the wee hours nearing the crack of dawn... just like old times! Love you long time! 😊
